Future IDs* Art and Justice Summit on Alcatraz

—reframing the narrative of reentry

Saturday, September 21, 11am-5:00pm

Thank you for joining us for the Future IDs Art & Justice Summit!

We have two main goals for the day:

(1) To reflect on the work we have accomplished with the year-long exhibition and series of community programs and build towards next steps. This will include:

- Holding space for the reentry community & other justice impacted individuals to share their stories of transformation and trauma
- Expanding the work of Alcatraz as an International Site of Conscience by including individuals from the reentry community who engage in these issues in a real way
- Considering the effectiveness of bringing together civic engagement and the arts

(2) To create a video documentation of our conversations today. We have felt a need to capture the hard-to-see transformative exchanges that have defined this project and have given it so much meaning and power. This video will live on after the project and continue to get the message out.

SCHEDULE

Focused Discussion, 11:00am – 12:45pm

- A discussion among thought leaders in justice reform and the arts, members of the Future IDs team, and National Parks Service and Parks Conservancy staff. Facilitated by Sara Daleiden, civic engagement consultant and artist.

Roundtable Discussion, 1:15pm – 2:30pm

- We will expand our conversations with a moderated roundtable discussion led by Roberto Bedoya, City of Oakland Cultural Affairs Manager, and including a curated group of attendees.

Closing Celebration, 2:30pm – 5:00pm
